BACKGROUND: On November 7, 2006, Grapevine voters approved the creation of the Grapevine Crime Control and Prevention District (CCPD) and the adoption of a one-half of one percent sales and use tax.

The voters renewed the CCPD for a period of fifteen years on May 14, 2011. The sales and use tax remained at one-half of one percent. The CCPD will expire in 2026, unless it is renewed by the voters.

At the February 3, 2026, City Council meeting, Council discussed the renewal of the CCPD and directed the Crime Control and Prevention District to call an election to renew the CCPD for twenty (20) years.

Per the Tax Code, the Crime Control and Prevention District Board must hold a public hearing to allow the public to provide input on calling an election for the continuation of the district. Following the public hearing, there is a resolution on the agenda for the Board to consider calling an election to be held on May 2, 2026.
